

Facing A Hostile World

Luke 11:53-12:12
December 11, 2016

Confessing in a hostile world requires entrusting Christ with our personal needs.

1. Hypocrisy driven by pride corrupts our confession of Christ (12:1-3).
2. We must fear God more than we fear man (12:4-5).
3. Trust in God's care eliminates our fear of being forgotten (12:6-7).
4. Our earthly confession determines our eternal destiny (12:8-10).
5. The Holy Spirit empowers our witness under pressure (12:11-12).